Sardar Md. Rashed Jahangir, J:

On an application under article 102 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the Rule Nisi was issued on 17.10.2024 as follows:

“Let a Rule Nisi be issued calling upon the respondents to show cause as to why the direction upon the respondents No. 2 and 3 to take necessary steps to restrain respondents No. 4 from proceeding with the purported auction scheduled to be held on 15.10.2024 as per the auction notice dated 25.09.2024 published in the "Daily Jayjaydin" under section 12 of the Artha Rin Adalat Ain, 2003 to sell the mortgaged properties of the petitioner (Annexure "B") to the writ petition should not be declared to have been done without any lawful authority and is of no legal effect and/or such other or further order or orders passed as to this Court may seem fit and proper.”

Under the case in hand, the petitioner has challenged the publication of the auction notice dated 25.09.2024 in the ‘Jayjaydin’ purportedly under section 12(3) of the Artha Rin Adalat Ain, 2003 for selling the mortgaged property in auction scheduled to be held on 15.10.2024. On 15.10.2024 the writ petition has been sworn in and on 17.10.2024, this Court was pleased to issue Rule Nisi in tandem with an interim order of stay of all further proceedings of the auction pursuant to the notice.

The respondent No. 4 by filing an affidavit-in-opposition apprised this Court that the property cannot be sold in auction due to the order of stay of this Court and the scheduled date of the auction i.e. 15.10.2024 has been expired in the meantime and as such the impugned auction notice published on 25.09.2024 in the ‘Daily Jayjaydin’ purportedly section 12(3) of the Artha Rin Adalat Ain, 2003 has no effectiveness, consequently the Rule has become infructuous.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the Rule is discharged.

No order as to cost.

The order of stay granted at the time of issuance of the Rule is hereby by recalled and vacated.

Communicate the order at once.

Md. Abdul Mannan, J:

I agree.
